It is reported that the Pope was worth $17,000,000. The question arises where did all this wealth come from.

Hon. J. A. Brannen, the probable next Congressman from the First, was among the prominent visitors here this week.—Mr. Quisenberry, of Statesboro, has been in town and vicinity this week in the interest of a portrait house which he represents.—Mr. David Strange, of Statesboro, returned from Sherman, Texas Thursday last, and reports a fine time. ### Lynched A Woman.

New Orleans, July 26.—A Picayune special from Shreveport, La., says:

News reached Shreveport today that a negro, Jennie Steer, who administered poison in a glass of lemonade to Fannie Dolan, the 16-year-old daughter of John Dolan, was lynched by an infuriated mob about sundown last night. The lynching occurred on the Beard plantation, near where the crime was committed.

Jennie Steer was stubborn to the last, denying her crime, but the proof against her was direct and conclusive.

It is said the negroes fled from the Dolan house as soon as her crime was known. She was found crouching in a hay loft. The negroes indignantly denied the crime. She was taken to the Dolan home and fully identified.

The mob then took her to a near-by tree, placed a rope around her neck and again ask her to confess. She was stubborn to the last, however, and was strung up without making any admission.

While the body was dangling in mid-air several bullets were fired into it by enraged citizens.

The victim of poison was a beautiful young girl, and was not known to have an enemy in the world. She died in horrible agony which accentuated the rage of the mob.—Morning News.

Don't worry about the dispensary. The weather is too hot, and besides they say all the snakes go blind in dog days.

Brannen Screven's Choice.

In an issue of the Savannah Press this week, it was stated that Col. Lester would not make the race again for Congress from this district, owing to his failing health. Col. Lester has proven himself a faithful representative from this district in congress for a number of years, but his friends and the public generally believe that his health has become so much impaired recently, that he can no longer render such service to his constituency as is required of a Congressman from so important a district as the first.

The next question then is his successor. Who will it be? It is not likely that Screven will have a candidate at this time, and the most desirable man from the Telephone's standpoint, is the Hon. J. A. Brannen, of Bulloch county.

Mr. Brannen is a lawyer of recognized ability, he has had considerable experience as a legislator in both branches of the general assembly where he took a front rank among the law makers. He is popular not only in his own county, but also in Emanuel, Tattnall, Effingham, Bryan, Burke and especially strong in this county. Should Col. Brannen decide to enter the race, we believe he can be elected.—Sylvania Telephone.

To Prepare for Tillman.

In the United States Senate, when a member is conducting the discussion of some bill which attracts much attention, he is called upon to reply to all sorts of searching criticisms, says the Saturday Evening Post. To get a contested measure through requires strength of purpose, nimble wit and complete knowledge of the subject. The ordeal also levies upon the physical strength of the man in charge of the measure.

One day during a big debate in the recent session, Senator Spooner, who was in charge, did not feel so well as usual, and forthwith consulted a physician, a man who is a close student of public affairs. "There is nothing serious the matter with you," said the medical man; "you have been on a strain, that's all. I'll give you some pills which will find to be excellent tonic. Take them in the morning just before going to the Senate?"

"How many shall I take?" "That depends upon circumstances," replied the physician. "Let's see; who is slated to criticize your bill tomorrow?"

The Senator from Wisconsin mentioned the name of a colleague known as a strong and resourceful debater.

"Take three pills," said the physician.

"Who is to be your opponent the next day?"

The name of a senator not quite so formidable as the first was given.

"Two pills," said the doctor. "And who is the man you meet in debate the following day?"

The name was given.

"One pill will do. And who is down to assail your bill and ask you questions on the fourth day?"

Senator Spooner named a senator who evidently had not impressed the physician.

"You may omit the pill entirely that day."

The Senator laughed. "Next week I am to have Tillman of South Carolina on my hand," he volunteered.

"On that day take four pills before going to the Capitol and one every half hour during the rest of the day,—Ex.

True Wealth.

The world is crazy on money. Mammon is the god of men. We hear of so and so, and the question is, how much money has he got? That seems to be the yard stick that we measure our fellow men by. But it is a yard stick that is only an inch long, when placed against character. A man may have enough money to make him rich and powerful, and influential in the community in which he lives, or in the state or nation; he may hold high positions of trust and honor, but if he be lacking in the elements that constitute true wealth he will live his life in vain and the world will not be better when he is dead. Let us judge men more by their character and less by the money standard, and it will be better for mankind generally.

MANY MAY RUN TO SUCCEED LESTER.

There is considerable speculation in political circles now since the reports from Savannah that Congressman Rufus E. Lester, of the first district, would not be a candidate to succeed himself at the coming election.

Friends of Hon. P. W. Meldrim are urging him to announce as a candidate, and it may be that he will do so. Hon. Robert M. Hitch, a prominent young attorney of Savannah and former representative of Chatham county in the legislature, is also regarded as a candidate.

While no announcement has come either from Col. Meldrim or from Mr. Hitch, it would not be a surprise to see both men enter the contest. Mr. Hitch, who is here today, would not make a statement concerning the probabilities of his becoming a candidate, but it is known that he has congressional aspirations, and that he has a very strong following in the counties composing the first district.

It is also reported at the capitol today that Solicitor General Osborn might be a candidate. It is said that he will probably not be a candidate for solicitor again, and that he is considering entering the congressional race. This, of course, is unauthorized, but certain friends of Mr. Osborn state that he might be a candidate.

Then the name of Ferris Cann, former senator and present member of the house from Chatham, is mentioned. Col. Lester has not announced that he would not be a candidate, but it seems to be certain, according to the Savannah papers, that he will not run again.

None of the men mentioned would oppose Col. Lester on account of his long term of service, and the excellent work which he has done for the state, the south and his district, but should he retire from political life and again become a private citizen, there will be the liveliest sort of contest for his seat in the national house of representatives.

Of Col. Lester's not becoming a candidate for re-election the Savannah Press has the following:

"Col. Rufus E. Lester was seen this morning and asked about the telegram from Atlanta to the Savannah Press yesterday, which stated that from an apparently authentic source it was announced that Col. Lester would not be a candidate for congress again.

"While Col. Lester says he has not authorized any one to speak for him in this matter, and states that he has not said that he is not going to run again, he said this morning to a representative of the Press that it was possible that he would not be a candidate next year.

"The election is several months off, in fact, no final decision would have to be reached for about a year, and Col. Lester naturally does not care at this early date to make a positive and final announcement as to his intentions.

"Since the publication of the telegram from Atlanta in the Press yesterday he has been seen by a great many of his friends and constituents in Savannah who assured him that they hoped he did not intend giving up his place in congress.

"These assurances are very gratifying to Col. Lester. He has represented the first district in congress long and faithfully, and it naturally pleases him to know that the people appreciate his splendid service.

"Some of the friends of Col. Lester are evidently under the impression that he does not intend to make another race for congress and that at the proper time will issue a statement outlining the reasons if, indeed, he does not care to return.—Atlanta Journal.

The people of Augusta are making determined effort to stop any sympathy in the job they have undertaken.

Something of Judge Turner, The New Justice.

Hon. Henry G. Turner, who took his seat on the supreme court bench of Georgia last week as the successor of the late Justice Lumpkin, is a man known all over Georgia. The Atlanta Constitution gives the following sketches of his life:

Hon. Henry G. Turner was born in Franklin county, North Carolina, on March 20, 1839, and was educated at the University of Virginia. When 20 years of age he moved to Brooke county, Ga., where he taught school until the war broke out, when he entered the Confederate army as a private. He served gallantly to the end, rising to the rank of captain and suffering both imprisonment and a wound at Gettysburg from a bullet which was not extracted until 1868.

In 1865 he was admitted to the bar. He was presidential elector in 1872, voting for Charles T. Jenkins for president; was representative in the legislature from Brooks in 1874, 1876 and 1878, taking a high stand in the legislature from the first. In 1876 he was a delegate to the national Democratic convention.

Judge Turner was first elected to congress in 1880. He served continuously for 18 years. He was an unquestioned leader on the Democratic side of the house, both while his party was in the minority and when it had control of that body.

Both as a state and national legislator, Judge Turner took high rank. In both legislative bodies his splendid judgment coupled with his magnificent legal talent, made him a leader. He retired from congress voluntarily, possessing always the confidence and support of the people of his district. Since his retirement he has lived quietly at his home at Quitman, devoting himself to the practice of law. In 1895 he married Miss Morton, the daughter of one of the most prominent men in Brooks county. Judge Turner is a man of considerable wealth and does not, therefore, have to depend upon the salary he will receive as associate justice. He is one of the few men of prominence at the law who can afford to make the financial sacrifice which a man who takes a place upon this court is compelled to make.

Catarth of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded: when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, expelling the nervous causes the glands to secrete mucus, instead of the natural juice of digestion. This is called catarrh of the stomach. For years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R. Rhea, Coppell, Tex. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

As soon as the dispensary bill passes an election will be called and the two thousand white registered voters of the county can settle the matter without delay. The sooner, the better for every body.

EARLY RISERS

For quick relief from Biliousness, Sick Headache, Torpid Liver, Jaundice, Diarrhoea, and all troubles arising from an inactive or sluggish liver, DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled. They act promptly and never gripe. They are so delicate that it is a pleasure to take them. One to two act as a mild laxative; two or four act as a pleasant and effective cathartic. They are purely vegetable and absolutely harmless. They taste like liver.

Let It Remain As It Is.

Mr. Editor:

I see in your paper of last week that the gentleman from Appling county, in the present legislature, wants an amendment to the constitution creating 13 new counties by lopping off parts of the larger ones. If you will notice the map you will see that it will affect the entire wiregrass section.

I don't know what the gentleman from Appling is striving for more political power, and if he is he will surely fail for the reason, for instance: the three large counties of Tattnall, Bulloch and Emanuel have just gained one member each in the lower house and they would surely lose one vote; for it is hardly possible to make six counties out of the three, with a slice from Burke and Screven thrown in, so you see he would lose one vote; but I suppose it is for some other purpose this trick is worked up.

Everybody knows the country is full of politicians and office seekers, and I imagine while there are not offices to go around, we must have amendments to the constitution so as to create more counties, furnish these gents with their bread and butter. The framers of the last constitution saw the desire of office so they prohibited any more counties being made in the state, for if I am not mistaken, it was the carpet-bag convention that made for more counties at that time and Gen. Toombs and all the great lights of that day, members of that convention, concluded to put a stop to it.

Now, Mr. Editor, I have not heard the first man in Bulloch say anything in favor of cutting off a part of our county that has taken on a boom for the last ten years to be cut off in the interest of Millen and a few more little towns on the south and west of us to be made county sites, and in the interest of the hash houses in those places.

Think of it, you people of Bulloch who are to be cut off, of the money to be forced from your pockets, as taxes, after laboring for it hard all the year round, to build court houses and jails, and support a set of hungry office seekers of your little county not much larger than the 1820th district; and then the court expenses, to come on top of all another judicial circuit also. It would be best in my opinion to call a meeting of the citizens of Bulloch and express their opinion on the question and, if not in favor of a partition of her territory, to instruct our members from this county and our senator to try their best to kill the bill when it comes up. I think it would be easier to kill it now than to let it come before the whole state, for the ring that controls is hard to down.

HAYSREED.

Annoying Citizens.

There is an old negro in town, by the name of Bob, that has been more annoyance to the people of the town, than every other negro in it. His hollering and singing has wrecked more nerves than a big dispensary would. The Mayor and Marshal are trying the jail cure on him now and we trust they will break him from hollering. If this fails, then some of the tax payers whose nervous system has suffered, will use the raw hide, and run him out of town. This should have been done five years ago, but the southern people are more forbearing with the negroes than the yankees.

A Serious Mistake.

E. C. DeWitt & Co. is the name of the firm who make the genuine Witch Hazel Salve that heals without leaving a scar. It is a serious mistake to use any other. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, burns, bruises, eczema and all skin diseases. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

Remember that your neighbor has the same right to express himself on the dispensary question that you have, and abuse is not argument.

Turner Accepts.

Atlanta, July 28.—Hon. Henry G. Turner of Quitman has accepted the appointment by Gov. Terrell to the Supreme court bench, to succeed the late Justice Samuel Lumpkin, and will go on the bench in the morning.

The Supreme Court is particularly busy at the present time, and Judge Turner's services will be needed. He reached Atlanta to-night for a conference with the Governor, and after talking it over with him at the mansion, stated he would accept.

Just About Bedtime.

Take a Little Early Riser—it will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are different from other pills. They do not gripe and break down the mucous membranes of the stomach, liver and bowels, but cure by gently arousing the secretions and giving strength to these organs. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

Grand Picnic.

There will be a grand picnic and ball at Register on Saturday afternoon next, August 1st. Refreshments of all kinds will be on hand and dancing will be the order of the day. Come one come all.

Wants To Know Them.

Emanuel county is discussing the question of having a dispensary. If anti down there desire to burst it up we would refer them to our "Alec" and "Lum." They are the best dispensary killers we know of.—Washington Reporter.

We would like to have some information as to who Messrs. "Alec" and "Lum" are.—Wiregrass Blade.

My! my! Brother Camp. We supposed every prominent man in the state, especially newspaper men, had heard of "Alec" and "Lum."

The legislature put a dispensary on Wilkes, the people rebelled and sent two plain farmers, Hons. C. A. Alexander and Columbus Grande to the legislature, who knocked the stuffing out of it the first day the legislature met. They are now famous as expert dispensary killers, and their constituents refer to them as our "Alec" and "Lum."—Washington Reporter.

No man or woman in the state will hesitate to speak well of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets after once trying them. They always produce a pleasant movement of the bowels, improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. For sale by all druggists.

Boys with hats on the back of their heads and long hair hanging down their foreheads, and cigarettes and smutty stories in their mouth are cheaper than old worn-out horses, says a contemporary. Nobody wants them at any price. Men will not employ them and girls will not marry them. They are not worth their keeping to anybody and they will not do it themselves. If a boy who happens to read this answer to this description let him take a look at himself and do what his conscience says is the best thing to do!—Ex.

Jim Dumps exulted, "We do not, On Summer days so close and hot, Build up a fire and stew and steam! A dish of 'Force,' a bowl of cream. Is just the food to fit our whim. And keeps us cool," laughed "Sunny Jim."

Ideal Summer Food.
"Force" is an ideal summer food because it contains elements for nourishing every organ of the body, is easily digested, creates what we know is vigor, and at the same time does not make a river of fire out of the blood. PERCUT G. STANTON.

Don't be Fooled

by advertisements of women's shoes which are "Superelegant," "Sculptured," "dainty," "Architectural," and "Statuesque."

Use a good honest Saxon word, and ask, if they Fit?

There's the point! There's the rub! There is one shoe for women that has built itself up to the top notch of popularity on fit. That shoe is the "QUEEN QUALITY."

If you want to see your foot look a full size smaller—if you want to spare yourself of your daily fatigue—if you want to own shoes which will be constant delight and last longer because they fit accurately, buy a single pair of "Queen Quality." A million women say this, comment unnecessary.

The Fish Fry.

On Tuesday Messrs. C. M. Cumming and W. N. Hall gave a fish fry out on the banks of the Ogeechee river at Dover. A large number of Statesboro people attended and the occasion was all that could have been expected in the way of a good time. The crowd had all the fish they could devour and many long strings of fluttering perch and bream were brought in as evidences of a big catch. A basket dinner was spread and other good things besides fish were served.

The News was favored with an invitation but like many other occasions of this kind the editor was unable to be present.

Stricken Severely.

It seems that a colored family living about 7 miles from Statesboro have had a severe visitation of fever. The family is that of Abe Lee, who was one of the best and most prosperous colored farmers in Bulloch.

About a year ago Abe was taken with typhoid fever and died. Since then there have been 11 cases of this fever in the house resulting in two deaths, on Tuesday night that of John Lanier, a son-in-law of Abe, and a grown son. They both died in the same house in about one hour of each other.
